

ARTICLE APPEARED
ON PAGE 16

U.S. NEWS & WORLD REPORT
2 April 1979

Brezhnev, Leonid

Washington Whispers

Word from U.S. intelligence is that if Soviet boss Brezhnev comes to sign a SALT pact, as expected, he'll spend most of his time at Camp David to keep out of the view of cameras that would show how much he is ailing.

* * * *

Reports reaching the West tell of spreading warfare and chaos in Afghanistan involving Soviet advisers who help run the Marxist regime. Said one intelligence official: "The Soviets are evacuating coffins by air that presumably are not empty."

* * * *

The White House is being warned that several senators who oppose a new SALT pact have obtained secret studies suggesting the U.S. will have trouble verifying Soviet compliance and are waiting to spring them in debate over a new arms agreement.

* * * *

Key members of Congress now are more worried about the shortcomings of the CIA than they are about imposing new controls on its activities. Result: Legislation restricting CIA operations will be watered down, if not dropped entirely.

* * * *

Though old-timers at the CIA have accepted the fact that the agency is no longer as supersecret as it used to be, even jaundiced officials were taken aback when a request for data under the Freedom of Information Act was received from the Polish Embassy.

CIA 4 AFghANISTAN

~~OR 91 SALT~~

CIA 2.05.2 S2525

CIA 2.05.1 FOIA
(Polish Embassy)